

Foolproof Brewing Announces Limited Edition IPA Collaboration with Mount Snow

PAWTUCKET, Rhode Island / WEST DOVER, Vermont – Nov. 17, 2017 – Foolproof Brewing Company today announced a new beer partnership with Mount Snow Resort in Vermont. Starting this month, Yahd Sale India Pale Ale will be available exclusively on draft at several locations across Mount Snow, including Station Tap Room, 1900' Burger, and The Bullwheel.

“This is one of the most fun and exciting collaborations Foolproof has launched to date,” said Nick Garrison, Foolproof’s president and founder. “We hope that beer lovers and skiers at Mount Snow will enjoy this unique and flavorful IPA throughout the winter season and beyond.”

Yahd Sale, an IPA brewed with Citra and Mosaic hops, will be served at Mount Snow in time for Thanksgiving. The beer will be sold exclusively in draft format by Farrell Distributing of Rutland, VT. To start, the beer will be available at several bars and restaurants on the mountain, with plans for potential expansion into canned packaging and regional distribution.

“It’s been so much fun working with the guys over at Foolproof Brewing coming up with just the right recipe for our guests,” stated Michael Giorgio, director of food and beverage at Mount Snow. “We really think this IPA is going to hit the spot after a day on the slopes.”

To formally launch the partnership, Foolproof and Mount Snow will be hosting one of their famous five-course beer dinners on Friday, Dec. 8, from 7:00-10:00 p.m. Foolproof will also hold a promotional event at Station Tap Room on Saturday, Dec. 9, from noon-6 p.m. to officially launch the beer to the general public.

Launched in January 2013, Foolproof is a craft brewery based in Pawtucket, Rhode Island. Foolproof’s beers are distributed statewide in Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Vermont, Maine, and New Hampshire.
